Speaker

Karl Clauson

Karl Clauson was born in Homer Alaska, loves the outdoors and completed the Iditarod Trail Race in 1978 at the age of 18.

Karl has experienced deeply what he is so passionate to share. He was spiritually transformed on February 11th, 1984 and has not been the same man since. The Clauson's served in South Africa, coaching multi-racial track and field team and church planting. After returning from Africa, they ministered to singles for eight years in Denver CO. and Little Rock AR. They returned to Alaska and served as lead pastor of ChangePoint in Anchorage Alaska between 1999-2008. Karl has spoken nationally at marriage conferences with FamilyLife for 12 years.

Special Worship

Ricardo Sanchez

Grammy-nominated, Dove-Award winning, Atlanta based worship leader and Christian recording artist, Ricardo, is known nationally and internationally as a singer, notable song writer, conference speaker, and one of the nation's most preeminent worship leaders. Having authored or co-authored such songs as Moving Forward, I Call Your Name, Power of One, Power of the Cross, and others, Ricardo has received chart topping radio play, while his songs are sung in churches across the globe.
